

Warlock

Dragony

Ex igni nos levamus
In inferno cantas
Incantatis animum
Mage magiorum

Run, from the demons chasing you
When it comes to push and shove
Then your nightmares all come true
I defy the gods above

Hatred burns in fiery eyes
I command your souls to rise
Raining fire from the skies
I am the warlock of demise

Virtue of the fallen
I condemn your soul to see
The warlock that is me

Code of honour, last of the line
As I wander the astral plane
Curse the heavens, weak as you are
As the warlock rises again

I, I am the dark
I am the fire
I am the doom that's crashing down
Unto the liars
Who denied the truth of all my teachings

Come, down with me
Come here and see
The fate that tomorrow comes to be

Virtue of the fallen
I condemn your soul to see
The Warlock lives in me

Code of honour, last of the line
As I wander the astral plane
Curse the heavens, weak as you are
As the warlock rises again

Ex igni nos levamus
In inferno cantas
Incantatis animum
Mage magiorum

Out of the dark I am the keeper
Of the fires of the night
I live for the gods of old
And I come to claim my right

Virtue of the fallen
I condemn your soul to see
The Warlock lives in me

Code of honour, last of the line
Curse the heavens, weak as you are
