Warlock

Ex igni nos levamus In inferno cantas Incantatis animum Mage magiorum

Run, from the demons chasing you When it comes to push and shove Then your nightmares all come true I defy the gods above

Hatred burns in fiery eyes I command your souls to rise Raining fire from the skies I am the warlock of demise

Virtue of the fallen I condemn your soul to see The warlock that is me

Code of honour, last of the line As I wander the astral plane Curse the heavens, weak as you are As the warlock rises again

I, I am the dark
I am the fire
I am the doom that's crashing down
Unto the liars
Who denied the truth of all my teachings

Come, down with me Come here and see The fate that tomorrow comes to be

Virtue of the fallen I condemn your soul to see The Warlock lives in me

Code of honour, last of the line As I wander the astral plane Curse the heavens, weak as you are As the warlock rises again

Ex igni nos levamus In inferno cantas Incantatis animum Mage magiorum

Out of the dark I am the keeper Of the fires of the night I live for the gods of old And I come to claim my right

Virtue of the fallen I condemn your soul to see The Warlock lives in me

Dragony

Code of honour, last of the line As I wander the astral plane Curse the heavens, weak as you are As the warlock rises again
