

Elevate, elevate
Only obligation is to tell it straight
So much on my plate I gotta delegate
Baka passed a drug test, we gotta celebrate
I'm in better weight, thinking how'd I make-

All this happen for myself and my family
All this happen for myself and my family
There's no way that this is real, man, it can't be

Yeah, yeah
If you need me, you can't call me, I stay busy making money
You know what is on my mind, all I think about is hunnids
I stay busy (bzz!) working on me
I stay busy with my business, homie
I already hit her when you left her lonely
She is not the type that likes to take things slowly
Slowly, my mouth is going off, I don't know patience
I got a chance, then my niggas got it too like it's contagious
I see the future when I get wavy (wavy, than!)
But I couldn't picture buying champagne when I would buy that shit and save it for the right occasion (haaan)
I couldn't picture changes when I was with Ms. Craten
That lady hates me
Couldn't picture wifing Braden when I was pumping gas on road trips to go from Cincinnati on to Dayton
I couldn't gauge it
I wanna thank God for working way harder than Satan
He's playing favorites, it feels amazing (yeah)

Elevate, elevate
Only obligation is to tell it straight
Me and all the guys found a better way
This for life, bih, we can never separate
I'm in better weight, thinking how'd I make-

All this happen for myself and my family
All this happen for myself and my family
There's no way that this is real, man, it can't be

Yeah
I can only tell you shit in pieces
As it happens to me I begin to write the thesis
Freddy got the Aria setup like its a Freaknik
Vegas like Marine Land, that big whale treatment
Georgie got me up a hunnid thousand for the weekend
I gotta move the safe beside the bed when I be sleepin'
My mood is changin' this summer I'ma be tweakin'
