

Treat you like princess
Rest in heaven Diana
Piquing my interest
She got peak like Montana
England breeds proper girls
Where are all your good manners?
Reply with pleasantries
Honestly, I can't stand ya

Ohh, ohh
You gon' make me turn up on you
Ohh, ohh
You gon' make me turn up on you

What you thought of me
Never had me missing a beat
That's just a view from a cheap seat
They don't want problems with me
Talk used to be cheap, nowadays it's free
People are only as tough as they phone allows them to be
Girl, that could never be me
I found my peace, I'm about to say my piece
You might not agree with me

Ohh, ohh
You gon' make me turn up on you
Ohh, ohh
You gon' make me turn up on you

What I'm sayin' in today really at our big, big age if you're gettin' with someone right now and you leave it there for a couple weeks, they should know this is the girl I kinda want to see so drop off the team, bro, 'cause the world nowadays ain't like that. Shady. He is... did that – obviously it takes time – you tryna shoot facts? First, you shouldn't have no problems at the beginnin', it should be that honeymoon stage... – That's what I said, that's what I said! The beginning is always hurried. Yeah, well you overdo it and he's overdoin' it. Both of you are overdoin' it right now. Yeah, well, alright
