Twist in My Sobriety

Dreadful Shadows

All God's children need travelling shoes Drive your problem from here All good people read good books Now your conscience is clear I hear you talk, girl Now your conscience is clear

In the morning when I wipe my brow Wipe the miles away I like to think than I can be so willed And never do what you say I'll never hear you And never do what you say

Look my eyes are just holograms Look your love has drawn red from my hands From my hands you know you'll never be More than twist in my sobriety More than twist in my sobriety

We just poked a little empty pie For the fun the people had at night Late at night don't need hostility The timid smile and pause to free

I don't care about their different thoughts Different thoughts are good for me Up in arms and chaste and whole All God's children took their toll

Look my eyes are just holograms Look your love has drawn red from my hands From my hands you know you'll never be More than twist in my sobriety More than twist in my sobriety

Cup of tea take time to think, yeah Time to risk a life, a life, a life Sweet and handsome, soft and porky You pig out 'til you've seen the light Pig out 'til you've seen the light

Half the people read the papers Read them good and well Pretty people, nervous people People have got to sell News you have to sell

Look my eyes are just holograms Look your love has drawn red from my hands From my hands you know you'll never be More than twist in my sobriety More than twist in my sobriety

Look my eyes are just holograms Look your love has drawn red from my hands From my hands you know you'll never be More than twist More than twist in my sobriety
