

Fight You 'Till the End

Dream Evil

Just come inside and see
It's not just fantasy
It's where you want to be
I lead you through the maze
I give you liberty
I make you feel so free
I'll be your master - You're my slave
I'm like the wind that spreads the fire
A smell of evil in the air
Fire's burning everywhere
You lock me in
So that I'm under your control
You take possession of my soul
I won't give in
Though I have no place left to go
I'm gonna fight you 'till the end
Don't try to run away
I'll make you paralyzed
You know it's no way out
It's time to realize
You need me to survive
You know your soul is mine
I'll be your master - You're my slave
I'm like the wind that spreads the fire
A smell of evil in the air
Fire's burning everywhere
You lock me in
So that I'm under your control
You take possession of my soul
I won't give in
I'm gonna fight you 'till the end
I'll be your master - You're my slave
I'm like the wind that spreads the fire
A smell of evil in the air
Fire's burning everywhere
You lock me in
So that I'm under your control
You take possession of my soul
I won't give in
I'm gonna fight you 'till the end
