

The Book of Heavy Metal (March of the Metallians)

Dream Evil

I'd sign - a contract with the devil
I've tried - for so very long
I'd die - to become immortal
that's why I sing this song
Am I a wannabe? - have I no dignity.
I'd give up all my life.. to be
In the book of heavy metal.. METAAAAL!
In life - I have no religion besides the heavy metal gods wear nothing but black skin tight leather My skin's clad with metal studs
Am I a wannabe? - have I no dignity.
I give up all my life to be..
In the book of heavy metal..METAAAAL!
In the book of heavy metal
Some twenty years ago, the gods put down their feet,
So firmly in to the ground that no man of sword nor pen, could ever change the rules upon which The very fundament of metal was made.
GUITAR SOLO
Read all about it, in the book of heavy metal
Read all about it, in the manual
Read all about it, in the book of heavy metal
Read all about it
Don't need no flashy house, no car or ugly wife the only thing I want, is what my parents don't need no widescreen TV, No, in all honesty the only thing I want to be (to be or not to be) In the book of heavy metal - In life - METAAAAL!
In the book of heavy metal - to death - AMETAAAAL!
I'd die - to become immortal
That's why I play the guitar
