

Violent Pictures

Dream On, Dreamer

I wish I could be a stranger
If I was than you wouldn't find out
Got a head full of violent pictures, no way to work it out
And I know now
I was young and wanted to grow older
Now i'm grown, can I take it all back?
Got a head full of violent pictures, I made them all myself
And I know now

I wake up in the morning with nothing but my friends
And memories of dreaming of you
And I know, I need forgiveness like a hole in the head
Take me backwards, I don't want to know who I am

oooohh
You just walked away
oooohh
And you just walked away
oooohh
You just walked away

I wake up in the morning with nothing but my friends
And memories of dreaming of you
And I know, I need forgiveness like a hole in the head
Take me backwards, I don't want to know who I am

I wake up in the morning with nothing but my friends
And memories of dreaming of you
And I know, I need forgiveness like a hole in the head
Take me backwards
Take me backwards
Take me backwards
I don't want to know who I am
