Dreamscape

As now our time seemed over
And all our waiting ends
We're reaching out with steady
And embracing hands

The sleepless dawn awakens
Our precious sun inside
The wide and wondrous gazes
A state of grace and light

Dance and spin
You may win
That's how we reach the state where
All is one again... constantly

The fires were left for starving
Abandoned in despair
But now an ember started
What once was unaware

Dance and spin
You may win
That's how we reach the state where
All is one again... constantly

Dance and spin on your way
Dance and spin on your way
You try to catch the moment
To believe

Dance and sing
Be your own king
That's how we reach the state where
All is one again... constantly
