

Mirror

Dreamtale

Time after time
You close that door
And say to me:
"Can't stand no more"
But every time
When I'm away
You call to me:
"Please come and stay!"

You know it's hard to carry on
If you don't love me anymore
You say you need to lean on me but can i too, lean on...

You want it all
To be young and free
Have family,
But can't you see:
You can't decide
What's right or wrong
Don't think no more,
It's time to go!

You talk me 'bout your self esteem
How you think i've flushed it down the drain
You know the mirror hanging at your wall?
Take a good look in it and you'll find the real cause!
