

Hellcome

Driller Killer

Beyond understanding, without excuse
Beyond forgiveness, I put out my fuse
It's hard to live with a will to die
When every promise is a potential lie

To erase millions wouldn't be a loss
Fuck yourself, there's too many of us
It's hard to live like a fucking whore
Laughter does not deform my face anymore

When there's no more room in hell
The dead shall walk the earth... and they do
