

No Reason To Quit

Driller Killer

Extreme noise terror between my ears
Still blows it away after all these years
Green days never last in a world full of shit
When everything sux there's no time to quit

The spirit lives on and on
We fucked the fashion and proved them wrong

Like a pack of wolves attacking the deer
Loaded with hunger, entombed by disffear
With strings n' skins we let go of our rage
Another decade, another page
