

Bye Bye Blues (The Whole West Coast Is Ruined)

Drop Dead, Gorgeous

The ocean pours from her eyes,
While the statues crumble aside,
And this city overrun with traffic,
Is so overconcentrated with static.

And I scream,
And nobody listens.
And I scream,
But everyone's louder.
Drink until everything seems to make sense,
In this desperate night, we were all wearing costume.

Lay awake until the stomach settles.
Just one taste will make it all feel better.

I don't fear, I don't fear, I don't fear, I don't fear.
I don't care, I don't care, I don't care, I don't care.

You never had the guts to face me, to face me.

Kill! Kill! Kill! Kill!

I need you.
Bye bye, blues.
Bye bye, blues.

Lay awake until the stomach settles.
Just one taste will make it all feel better.

"I don't believe we've met....
Allow me to introduce myself."

I don't believe we've met.
When I look at you I can see myself.
