I Told You

And I told you, you better move along, yeah And I told you, what you thought was wrong And I told you, the solitude inside, yeah I will show you, we don't have to hide

This goes on and on, and on, and on On and on again, yeah
Catch your breath and move along
On and on again

And I told you, keep your piece of mind, yeah And I told you, the peace you hold inside And I told you, everything you've known, yeah They will know you for everything you've shown

This goes on and on, and on, and on On and on again, yeah
Catch your breath and move along
On and on again

Don't hide from everyone Come see what you've become You've tried since you were young To shine in front of everyone

And I told you, this is what you need, yeah And I told you, what a life to lead And I told you, controlling on your nerve, yeah Now you own you, speaking your own words

This goes on and on, and on, and on On and on again, yeah
Catch your breath and move along
On and on again

On and on, and on, and on On and on again, yeah Catch your breath and move along On and on again
