

Soundtrack to a Killing Spree

Dropkick Murphys

I know that you ain't too pretty
God knows how much you suck
It's a tragedy that you were born
I rue the day you wrote this

Soundtrack to a killing spree
Screwing kids for an easy buck
Soundtrack to a killing spree
You're a disgrace may you burn in hell

You're the darling of the media
A new commodity
But you left behind a trail of tears
A string of suicides

I know that you ain't too pretty
God knows how much you suck
It's a tragedy that you were born
I rue the day you wrote this

Soundtrack to a killing spree
Screwing kids for an easy buck
Soundtrack to a killing spree
You're a disgrace may you burn in hell
