

Soliloquy

Dropping Daylight

Let's go!
I want to be a spiritual person
I want to have a code of ethics
Want to have morals to live by
Fire to write the accord of my life
Take a break from the unrest
Monotony of the loveless
I'm moving on
We're moving on
I'm moving on

[Chorus]
It's time to leave it all behind
Start another life
Take a risk and fall apart
Search inside your life
How to whisper from the crowd
I'll find my own way out

I want to be
A legendary lover
I want to have
The tools to please her
Oh lay it down here
Lay it down
I'll find my own education
Learn the key to her seduction
I'm moving on
We're moving on
I'm moving on

[Chorus]
I'll find out
Find another way
I'll find out
Find another way
I'll find out
Find another way
I could have could have gone and could have gone

[Chorus]
Yeah
