

Tell Me

Dropping Daylight

Called the race
Tell me it's over now
I cannot stand to look
In the face of my leaders now
I'm burning up tonight
I walk up the stairs
You tell me it's cold outside
I could use some air
Called the race
Tell me it's over now
And it's just not fair
Ooo, why
Is this happening
Now? Why, ooo, why

[Chorus]
Tell me what do you know
About moving forward
Tell me something to say
'Cause I'm screaming, screaming
Give me something to make
Before I burn these bridges
How much more can I hate
Without burning up?

Not giving up till I break down
Not giving up till I break down

I turn off the news
I try to get some rest
Wrap myself in heat
Burning up
Why does it take so long
To get myself to sleep?
Ooo, why
Is this happening
Now? Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)
(Not giving up till I break down)

[Chorus]

Not giving up till I break down
Not giving up till I break down
Not giving up till I break down

Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)
Is this happening? (not giving up till I break down)
Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)
Is this happening? (not giving up till I break down)

[Chorus]

Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)
Is this happening (not giving up till I break down)
Now? Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)
Is this happening (not giving up till I break down)
Now? Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)

Is this happening (not giving up till I break down)
Is this happening (not giving up till I break down)
Now? Why, ooo, why (not giving up till I break down)
