

All About Me

Drowning Pool

Come on ,bore me, tell me a little more about you
Come on and bore me please bore me tell me what you think
I cannot believe I got through a single day of my life
Without you

This is all about me, this is not about you

Why every time I try
You never hear me, you only hear you
Why every time I try
I never get through
This is all about me not you

This time it's all about me not you

Hey wait, I think I might have something to say
Hey wait, I think I might have something to add Ain't it funny how when my opinion starts to spill, it falls on deaf ears

I pledge allegiance to myself
To me, myself and I
