

Crash Girl

Drugstore

There was this girl
She once hit a parked car in the street
It shook her world
Slipped the rug from under her feet
It was okay
She said it had hurt her and a stray bird
It changed her life
Now she's never gonna talk to men who'd want to meet
Anyone
Ahh
Anyone
It's not that hard
To have your whole head disappear
From the world
Just like a small piece of paper
But it's okay
I just keep walking the wrong way
Gotta change my life
Well, I'm never gonna park and I'll never get to meet
Anyone
Ahh
Anyone
