

Forever Beautiful

Dry Cell

i just want you to know that i want you to be safe or was it fate, no i can't remember so much pain in the world i hate feeling this way (it took you away)
i wish i could be strong, i wish i could be brave, i wish i cou ld be over and over to the world and the some of fate (away)

for-(forever)
ful-(beautiful)
don't ever think that i could not appreciate
we all come full circle
whatever out to give my lonely complicate

i just want you to know that it isn't easy to face its growing back but i will remember hear your voice everyday doesn't seem like the same (you took it away) (from me)

i wish you could be calm i wish you could be safe i wish you could be over and over to the world, an the some of fate(away)

for-(forever)
ful-(beautiful)
dont't ever think that i could not appreciate
we all come full circle

this isn't no relating way im still denying everything this can't be right and possibly i don't think i'll ever

for-(forever)
ful-(beautiful)
don't ever think that i could not appreciate
whatever out to give my lonely complicate
