

Under The Sun

Dry Cell

messed with eyes and ears but they dont mean much always fading away from things we cant touch didnt want you do go didnt want you to stay didnt want you to know waht was in side me

i never told you a lie i never meant you to see i never gave you the time i led you to believe let me go

let it go

im on a road so far away
(sometimes you stay sometimes you run) dont wanna be the only one under neath the sun

i never seeing it through im always walking away maybe i dont believe that its inside of me

i cant believe that im lost i dont know how to survive i cant believe that im here and im still alive

let it go

sometimes i feel im on my way
sometimes i feel im on my ?own?
sautering harder everyday
nobody wants to be alone

(dunno whats sayd in the background of this)

i was looking for myself got lost along teh way now it feels like some one else has got control of me
