

No Reason

Dry Kill Logic

The actions misleading
The words have no meaning
And leave it further still its hopeless and pointless
And unlike all the rest
It's something I don't mind
And I remember falling victim again
And I, I'm walking in circles
On pins and on needles
And giving it all away unwilling
Ungrateful
And nervous
Can you tell?
The laughter starts to fade
And I
Remember falling victim again
And I
Feel the pain won't let me forget
And I
Cannot let this get in my head
And I.

And I
Remember falling victim again
And I
Feel the pain won't let me forget
And I
Cannot let this get in my head
And I
The last chance
One more try
Final straws
And goodbyes
The laughter starts to fade...
