

Track 13

Dry Kill Logic

And I will say what's on my mind
If I can find my way from here
Or I will stay a fallen man
If I can't find my where from here

Zero nothing and then left to die
Could I have everything here with no surprise?
Would I? Turn back the changes, and yet we try, abandon all aban ndon all on the inside

Now I see the light

And I will say what's on my mind
If I can find my way from here
Or I will stay a fallen man
If I can't find my where from here

Could I have everything here with no surprise?
Would I? Turn back the changes, and yet we try, should I abando n all abandon all that is mine Never again will I walk the line, more than spirits inside they 're no friend of mine this is the same name I can't come to grips with it, an d now I feel,
and now I feel dismissed

Now I see the light
