

Room For 2

Dua Lipa

Up and down, it all comes back around
Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you

Why are you blaming me for all your insecurities?
I never did anything, but you closed the doors
And shit on me
Something a little bit better than sugar, bittersweet
I won't compete
You're like a king with a crown looking down
Hoping I won't leave

Up and down, it all comes back around
Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you
Up and down, it all comes back around
Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you

Remember when it felt like the start of the party
Mama, just like you
Maybe you'll be better in time and we'll leave it behind
There's room for 2
You should've never done something like that to someone
You can't undo
Thought you would run to the beat of the drum, drum, I see you

Up and down, it all comes back around
Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you
Up and down, it all comes back around
Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you

I hope that one day you will change
See everyone, we're the same
We're more than machines
You saw a spark where there once was a flame
And you can't even remember my name
Do you feel complete?

Up and down, it all comes back around
Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you
Up and down, it all comes back around

Push and shove, do you feel better now?
Knock, knock, knock
You come tear me down
Karma's got a kiss for you
