

He's sick of living without know cash
he knows the consequences
But he don't care bout dat
He'll not forget what his father said
It's by the sweet an ya brow
You should make your bread
But still with a bad intension
To go out an rob

He jumped in a motor to go do a job
Why why why why some one said
Why why why why you'll be dead
Why why why why crazy head
Why why why why

Anyway
Walks into the store
An tells the attendant
You stay still
Jumps over the coonter
An starts looting out the till
All of a sudden as he turned around
He sees old babylon bill an mose him down

Why why why why
Why why why why some one said
Why why why why
Why why why why crazy head

He made a move
For the exit door
He burst out side
An faced up twenty more he hears freeze drop the gun
Stick your hans on your head
He crazy brother
Tried to run instead

Why? why? why? why?
Why? why? why? why?
Why? why? why? why?

Hag him high
You will fly
You'll be dead
Crazyhead

Don't bother with the bad boy
Don't bother with the bad boy bad boy business
Don't bother with the bad boy
Don't bother with the bad boy bad boy business
Don't bother with the bad boy
Don't bother with the bad boy bad boy business
