

Lonely Tonite

Duff McKagan

Do you remember walkin' hand in hand
Did you understand, well, I did
We used to listened to that song
"Are you lonely tonight?"
I think the king sang it

I'm lonely tonite
Yeah lonely tonight
That's right

I used to read you bedtime stories

I'm so lonely tonite
I'm so lonely, so lonely tonite

Remember you used to protect me
From my fright
Now I stand here with a bottle in My hand
Who cares? What's different?
