

Swamp Song

Duff McKagan

I don't really need the ego
Of being a pop star Playing rock & roll makes Me stand hard & tall Once an old man with blood on his hands Said "Pick up my guitar and use it"
The he took it from me said "Let Your soul run free"

Chorus
People get so stuck on getting their Name in lights
Fuckin' some famous model Keepin' their assholes tight

So I played that guitar Til my dick got hard I fucked that bitch night & day Time went by and that old man died Got a note "Remember what I said"
Brought flowers to his grave Laid 'em down, and my fingers Started to bleed I was finally free
I was finally free yeah

Chorus

Uh uh uh
Don't get me wrong I ain't singin'
This song bout bros who truly deserve it But money & fame is for those truly Lame. The ones who need to get their Heads lit
So I play my guitar, Yeah I played that bitch all night Long Yeah I played my guitar I was finally free

Chorus-Bridge
So keep your head clear don't believe what you hear Just play what comes from your soul

But if money & fame is your fuckin' game
Then I hope you die fat & old

Repeat
