Save It for Your Prayers

Heard it on the wire You've been telling me lies Heard in a sparrow's song Every thing it said was wrong Found it on your shirts All the lipstick and the dirt Your late nights on the town Like red wine makes me down

I don't need no explanation I don't need the truth Show some remorse for me And for what you do

Save it for your prayer, boy There's no need to hurry Save it for your prayer, boy I've learned not to worry, yeah Save it for your prayer I, I'm not gonna care no I'm not gonna be there for you

Read it in a letter That you've hurt me so Never thought I'd leave you but Now I guess I don't know, oh I thought You'd love me and I I thought we'd last But now I realize It was all in the past

Save it for your prayer, boy There's no need to hurry Save it for your prayer, boy Cos I, I've learned Not to worry, no Save it for your prayer I'm not gonna care no I'm not gonna be there Yeaaaaahhh For yoooooou

For you

Save it for your prayer
