

Flesh and blood dance

Duke Special

I dreamed of cinderella
The queen of farytales
I was her prince charming
Desirable and real
But I'm just a lonesome skeleton
Not worth a second glance
But oh my bones are aching for a chance
To flesh and blood dance

Faces in the mirror
I'm haunted by the dead
Voices of old sweathearts
Calling me to bed
These ghosts come uninvited
Chimeras of romance
But still my bones are shaking for a chance
To flesh and blood dance

Flesh here in my hands
Blood here in my heart
Lips hard on my lips
How my flesh blood dance

Palaces and pleasures
I've had them for my own
But I'd lose them in an instant
To have more than these bones
But greed has turned me deathly
I'm caught within it's trance

Do you want to dance?
Would you like to dance?
All we want is flesh and blood!
Don't you want to live?
Snap out of your trance?
All we want is flesh and blood!
This dance-floor's lying empty
Come on, let's dance!
All we want is flesh and blood!
Do you want to dance?
Everybody dance!
All we want is flesh and blood!

Every bone is breajing for a chance
to flesh and blood dance
flesh and blood dance
flesh and blood dance
