

Sweet Sweet Kisses

Duke Special

There were sweet, sweet kisses at the start
But they pierced, pierced, pierced my little heart
I had big, big plans for you my love
But a dark cloud gathered up above

This is where the story ends
This is where the story ends
It's all too heavy for my heart
Those sweet, sweet kisses at the start

It was boom boom back when we were friends
Now the boo hoos tell me it's the end
What you did it ripped us at the seams
Now those sweet, sweet kisses feel like dreams

This is where the story ends
This is where the story ends
It's all too heavy for my heart
Those sweet sweet kisses at the start

So long, so long
This could be the end
Maybe, someday
We'll be born again

There were sweet, sweet kisses
There were sweet, sweet kisses at the start
