

Hold Your Hand

Dum Dum Girls

Oh it's a game, hold tight
Can you shut your eyes?
Shut out the light
Death is so bright

From dreams you wake to shock
To find it's true
But, she's not you
No, she's not you

And you'd do anything to bring her back
Yes you'd do anything to bring her back

Oh it's a game, hold tight
Can you shut your eyes?
Shut out the light
Death is so bright

From dreams you wake to shock
To find it's true
But, she's not you
No, she's not you

And you'd do anything to bring her back
Yes you'd do anything to bring her back
And you'd do anything to bring her back
Yes you'd do anything to bring her back

Oh I wish it wasn't true
But there's nothing I can do except hold your hand
Oh I wish it wasn't true
But there's nothing I can do except hold your hand
Til the very end.

And you'd do anything to bring her back
Yes you'd do anything to bring her back
Oh you'd do anything to bring her back
Yes you'd do anything to bring her back

Oh I wish it wasn't true
But there's nothing I can do except hold your hand
Oh I wish it wasn't true
But there's nothing I can do except hold your hand
Oh I wish it wasn't true
But there's nothing I can do except hold your hand
Oh I wish it wasn't true
But there's nothing I can do except hold your hand
'Til the very end
'Til the very end
