

Season In Hell

Dum Dum Girls

Anything we should know about your change?
From shots, broken hearts, tears from desert eyes
Something new is dreamed
A confession's not a cure,
There's always darkness to endure
On the path to be redeemed

It's been a season in hell
Baby don't you know
A season in hell

All the saint's in the shadows, hear them present remedies
Forget all your enemies

It's been a season in hell
Baby don't you know
A season in hell

Doesn't dawn look divine
Doesn't dawn look divine
Doesn't dawn look divine

Lift you gaze
It's the end of days

It's been a season in hell
Baby don't you know
A season in hell

Doesn't dawn look divine
Doesn't dawn look divine
Doesn't dawn look divine

Lift you gaze
It's the end of days
