

This Day

Duncan James

I put on my shoes and I walk away,
It's a lonely road, but it's such a lovely day,
This day,
No, I won't look back, cause it's in the past,
Got a way to go, and my feet are walking fast away,

You said it all, you closed the door,
And all that I know, is I tried so hard,
But it's not worth fighting anymore,
When all hope has gone,
So I'm moving on,

Got the sun in my eyes and it's blinding me,
My head's held high, but there's no need to see where I'm going
Cause, I gotta be strong, gotta cary on without you (without you),

You said it all, you closed the door,
And all that I know, is I tried so hard,
But it's not worth fighting anymore,
When all hope has gone,
So I'm moving on,

It's gonna get easier,
It's a lonely road,
it's the only way to go,
I'm moving on, ooh,

You said it all, you closed the door,
And all that I know, is I tried so hard,
But it's not worth fighting anymore,
When all hope has gone,
So I'm moving on,

So I put on my shoes and I walk away,
It's a lonely road but it's such a lovely day,
This day
