

And Now We Sing

Duncan Sheik

And now we'll sing of drowning things
No wondering what might happen
Upon that ship we played the popular songs
Some sang along, now all that's gone

Thrown below the raging tides
We hope to rest, we were denied
So now we haunt the ocean side
Live this pale eternal life

And now you're here and so we'll pass the tide
Secret's ours and phantom wide
And now it seems so long ago
But once we lived, but didn't know
That every life is quite a show
If it answered prayers and tales of woe
