I Don't Believe In Ghosts

Duncan Sheik

Here and there Haunting my closets and drawers My evermore

Now and then Forgetting that every thing's changed I call her name

And I heard the stories She tried to tell me Don't believe in ghosts

I hear a sound Maybe it's her coming home But I'm alone

No, I've never seen one I've never been one I don't believe in ghosts

No, I won't think of her I won't remember I don't believe in ghosts

She knows She knows
