

Counting Sheep

Dune Rats

Drowning in my sleep
Counting all the sheep, ah, shit
There goes another one, and another one
Catching all them Z's
Too many I can't keep, ah, shit
There goes another one, and another one
There goes another one, and another one

Had enough, it's tough to think about
Add it up, it sucks to think about
Had enough, it's tough to think about
Counting all the sheep

I think I messed up now
I think I'm losing count, ah, shit
But there's another way, there's another way
A ringing in my ear
Replaying all my fears, ah, shit
But there's another way, there's another way
There goes another way, and another way

Had enough, it's tough to think about
Add it up, it sucks to think about
Had enough, it's tough to think about
Add it up, it sucks to think about
Had enough, it's tough to think about
Add it up, it sucks to think about
Had enough, it's tough to think about
Counting all the sheep

Had enough, it's tough to think about
Add it up, it sucks to think about
Had enough, it's tough to think about
Add it up, it sucks to think about
All the things you couldn't live without
All the people that you're missing now
All the times you couldn't figure out
Counting all the sheep
