

Silent Icy River

Duran Duran

Following the love we receive
Holding on to what you believe
Following the life we receive
Holding on to what you believe.

Following the love we receive
Holding on to what you believe
Following the life we receive
Holding on to what you believe.

Time is a ribbon
A silent icy river, fools us all
Running deep, deep and fast enough
To get lost down in the flow
Thrashing around me,
These tiny lives mean everything.

Following the love we receive
Holding on to what you believe
Following the life we receive
Holding on to what you believe.
