

Zoom In

Duran Duran

Stood on the line you understand
I've been waiting forever come rain, come shine
In the wind and snow
In the filthy weather
you got it all worked out Yeah, but it knocks you out I'm zoomin' In

Now she arrives in a flamming crash like a falling star heading straight for the dive gonna make some cash with that avatar
You got it all worked out I know you know I don't want you to go yeah but it knocks you out I'm zoomin' In on you on you Don't look back - heart attack

we're not alone in the second life there are millions like us right here in the stones in the air too bright for the new insiders
