

Throw That World Away

Dwarves

This Planet Earth has reached
The point of No return
Now put them weenies on
A stick and watch it burn

A million miles away
From anywhere it seems
On this orb of broken drams
And twisted promise

I'll push the button on
A sudden careless whim
And spend eternity in
Universal quim

An ectoplasmic cataclysm
Called the bang
And it ain't no fucking thang
If you're upon it
You've got to throw that world away
