The first time I laid eyes on you,
You inspired this very love song,
And I was hoping that I can inspire you too, kick back and, cool out with me
I love that you inspire me
And when it comes the time that it's just you and I,
And I know that you want me too, so won't you just hold me, baby they don't call you lovely for nothing
Just want to be close to you
Never a moment without your smile
Just want to hold you forever
Whatever's clever.

The first time I sat down to think, just what it is you mean to me
It forced me to find poetry, just to express to you the beauty, of your being.
I love that you inspire me
And when it come the time that it's just you and I, I swear I will Hold you forever, that's my endeavor
I want to hold you in my arms, throughout the thick and thin you know I want you
You can't help But feel something that's real,
Lady, this is what I feel when, you raise me with you feeling.
I want you,
I want you,
I want you,
I want you,
I want you to understand how you enchant me
I alone can't project the feeling without you, (ooh)
I want you [9 x]
