

Question, can your smile, lead to my hello?
And my hello, lead to a first date?
And a first date lead to a "Can't wait to do it again!"
Ain't no pressure; we can't just let love develop
Get to know one another, from a sister to a brother
I'm just wonderin'
I'm just wonderin'
Can we start as friends? I'm just wonderin'
If you have a man I'm just wonderin'
To be around, a permanent how can I get down?
I'm just wonderin'
What do you see when you look at me?
In your beliefs do dreams come true?
Cuz I dream of you, of holdin' you
I'm wonderin'

Is it possible for you to see that maybe you and I can be?
Is it possible to be logical, for you to see that we can be?
Said it's possible for you to see then you and I can maybe be
Is it possible to be logical for you to see that we can be?

Patience, I was born with plenty
So if and when you're ready have some faith girl
And we can step out on fate
Cuz baby, I'm not your everyday average man spittin' everyday average lines
Unrehearsed girl, I speak the truth at all times
So I'm wonderin... if this is too far fetched?
If you're wondering this is no conquest to love you and leave you there
So I'm wonderin'
So I'm wonderin'

Is it possible for you to see that maybe you and I can be?
Is it possible to be logical, for you to see that we can be?
Said it's possible for you to see then you and I can maybe be
Is it possible to be logical for you to see that we can be?

Is it possible... (ooooh)... say it say it yeah,... (ooooh)...
Is it possible... (ooooh... baby... (ooooh)).
You and I could ever be yeahhh yeah yeah
