

If There Was A Way

Dwight Yoakam

I was just standing
Alone in this room.
Surrounded my memories
We stopped making too soon.

Oh, I was just standing
I was just standing,
Alone in this room,
Alone in this room.

I was just thinking
All to myself.
How I still want you
and nobody else.

Oh, I was just thinking,
I was just thinking,
All to myself,
All to myself,

In this darkness I move slowly,
Always struggling to be free.
But I still hear your voice,
And everywhere I see you the choice
That made such a fool of me.

I was just wondering,
If there was a way.
Bringing back to me
Pretty things I could say.

Oh I was just wondering,
I was just wondering,
If there was a way.
