

Yet to Succeed

Dwight Yoakam

Please don't start me cryin'
'Cause I'll go on for days
If don't take a lot
But once this starts, it stays

Talking used to help
Here lately though
That just brings it on

I'll be fine in time
But right now, I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to succeed

I think I'll just leave now
Before this hurts too much
Avoiding sights from places
My eyes can't bear to touch

I didn't plan to see you
And then I saw him first

I'll be fine in time
But right now, I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to succeed
