Yet to Succeed

Dwight Yoakam

Please don't start me cryin'
'Cause I'll go on for days
If don't take a lot
But once this starts, it stays

Talking used to help Here lately though That just brings it on

I'll be fine in time
But right now, I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to succeed

I think I'll just leave now Before this hurts too much Avoiding sights from places My eyes can't bear to touch

I didn't plan to see you And then I saw him first

I'll be fine in time
But right now, I'm just trying to forget you
And clearly I have yet to succeed
