Hollow

Right now I'm reaching The point of no return I'm entering the emptiness Redeeming myself From everything I feel

Far too long I've watched this show Where everything is nothing

I'm hollow There's just the fear When the eyes are drawing near I'm hollow Deep in the core Not even a shadow To live for

Gazing the mirror I see a halfmoon backwards And I'm inside out The fear is growing I'm feelin' all so clear The emptiness is filling me

I cannot cry I cannot laugh Just this emptiness in me Dyecrest
