Devout Atrocity

Dying Fetus

Engulfed by fate
Knowing you're part of, foretold prophecy
Awaiting the future
Post-apocalyptic visions you see them
Nearing tsunami
Cleansing the world of all inhabitants
Dormant volcanoes
Rapidly awakened, spewing out torment

Impending,
Calamities come forth
Anxious from
Prospects of affliction, bllissful
Revelations, religion, clairvoyance, self assured
Proactive, actions to be taken, bring about

Armageddon the end that nears
Without warning to the nonbelievers
Trying to facilitate
Precursor anarchy proliferation
The credulous populace
Ready to partake, extensive indiscretion

Cynics that are only interested In disruption
Join festivities
Tearing down the entire system
They believe
Will be no more
Acting out final impulse,
Boundless juncture
Looming devestation
Awaiting the ultimate release
Of death
Relish the undertaking

Enlisting anyone who will wreck
Cconfiguration
Of the status quo
Feeding paranoia to the rest
Of what's next
Riots the beginning
Constructing revolution,
Loosely bound
The chaotic notion
Preach to leave caution to the wind,
No more sin
End of days is here

Living in the frenzy so surreal Ignoring possible extinction Preparation after thought

Conspiracy consume many of them What they new when and how Government coverup primary beef Not uninhibited extermination

Staring down the end of a barrel Not fazed by threat oblivious Still exasperated no warning given Observing aristocracy full disregard

Living in the frenzy so surreal Ignoring possible extinction Preparation after thought

Peasants following their trendy causes Forgetting the grand scheme of things If predictions of events prove true So many left to fend off annihilation

Ignoring mass extinction

Cracks in the earth seperate, devestation Ash covered sky, enveloping darkness Spreading fire burns everything unrestrained Inhospitable indefinite wasteland Methane lakes emerge poisonous Asphyxiation

Mass extinction
