

Surveillance

Dying Passion

Born in love, lost in the system.
Computers rule the world,
Determine the path from childhood.
They follow me all around.
They've got the upper hand in
Whatever I do, wherever I go,
Face to face this enemy I appear so small.
Where do I belong?

Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
Give me strenght to start
All over again.
Relive me, 'cause my hopes are faiding,
Yet a piece of human lives inside, I'm live inside.

All that I wanted they took away from me,
Stole my identity,
Now I have to live in this cruel reality.
They don't care if I behold the truth or lies,
My paltry body interlaced with lines.

Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
Give me strenght to start
All over again.
Relive me, 'cause my hopes are faiding,
Yet a piece of human lives inside, I'm live inside.

Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
SAVE ME!

Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
Give me strenght to start
All over again.
Relive me, 'cause my hopes are faiding,
Yet a piece of human lives inside, I'm live inside.

Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
Give me strenght to start
All over again.
Relive me, 'cause my hopes are faiding,
Yet a piece of human lives inside, I'm live inside.

Save me, 'cause I'm falling apart,
Give me strenght to start
All over again.
Relive me, 'cause my hopes are faiding,
Yet a piece of human lives inside, I'm live inside.
