

Velvet Confessions

Dying Passion

I am a savage beast hidden in velvet
Angel of dark
Bound up with windstorm
Captured in the dark alone
The grave of volumeless
You are coming to help me
Signify my destruction
Nevermind!

Sooner or later
Cherished by the hope
I scramble ahead

Sooner or later
Cherished by the hope
I scramble ahead

No step back
No step back
No step back
No step back, step
No step back
No step back
No step back
No step back

Despite the distance between us
Nursed by the power of seeing you again
It's like a roaring hurricane
Like lava breaking

Despite the distance between us
Nursed by the power of seeing you again 2x

It's like a roaring hurricane
Like lava breaking
Too much, too, too, too much terrifying

And time passes
i must warn you
I am the chaos itself
I am praying to God
To see you again

I'm burning
Yes, I'm burning
With desire!

Despite the distance between us
Nursed by the power of seeing you again

Despite the distance between us
Nursed by the power of seeing you again

It's like a roaring hurricane
Like lava breaking, like lava breaking
Too much, too, too, too much terrifying

Despite the distance between us
Nursed by the power of seeing you again
