

Another Chance

Dynasty

We are living
In a lost world
Where the blind people
Walk in the darkness
Nations are fighting against themselves
Destroying their lives for anything

We can't believe
In the dead gods
They're blinder than we are
Nothing can they change now?
Parents are fighting against their sons
And die by the hands of the same ones

Lift your hands
Cry out for the mercy of the Lord
Give them another chance

Now we can feel
God's love
Through the Holy Spirit
Invading his hearts
Just believed in your words
And we've another chance to live

Lift your hands
Cry out for the mercy of the Lord
Give them another chance

Now I can tell for all
Who changed my wrong ways?
And you can also choose
The best side to live
Because my great Savior
Heard the prayers of my heart
Put on me your hands
Freeing me from sin forever
