Here I am looking for Then I found tou I can see, in your eyes Anguish to die

My life was only a reason What has passed with me I will tell you

I only have spoken about love to the hearts But nothing couldn't bve resolved In my human body I can fell so much anguish and pain

Until the time arrived And everything came true

Upon me I supported your sins and your pains In a rock I buried
My forgiveness your received

If you don't belive You can touch me Here I am Everything that I passed

Was just for love Just for loving you

Until the time arrived And everything came true

Upon me I supported your sins and your pains In a rock I buried My forgiveness your received
